

WINSLOW

IS a small market town, in a parish of its name, in the hundred of Cottesloe, and deanery of Muresley; 48 miles from London, 10 from Aylesbury, and seven from Buckingham. It is situated in a flat part of the county; the land being very fertile, and the neighbourhood, to a considerable extent around, occupied by the agriculturist. The only manufacture in the town is lace, and that but to a trifling extent. A speculation, in which two gentlemen of this town were engaged, is worthy of recording:—Messrs. Cowley and Staines, respectable surgeons here, in the year 1821 obtained a prize of 30 guineas, from the society for the encouragement of arts, manufactures and commerce, for cultivating the white poppy (papaver somniferum), and extracting 60 lbs. of opium, the produce of four acres, equal to the best imported from Turkey. In the two following years these gentlemen prosecuted the like culture with superior success, and were similarly rewarded by the society: from 11 acres having produced 143 lbs. of opium, and the next year from 12 acres 196 lbs. weight. Some idea may be formed of the value of this discovery, when it is known that the price is seldom less than 25s. per lb. for Turkey opium, and during the occupation of Egypt by the French it fetched as high a price as eight guineas per lb. The present lord of the manor is William Selby Lowndes, Esq. of Whaddon Hall: this gentleman holds a court leet, at the Bell inn, annually, on the last Monday in October.

The parish church, a spacious structure, in the Gothic style, is dedicated to St. Mary: the living is a vicarage, in the gift of the Lord Chancellor; and the present incumbent is the Rev. James Preedy. Here is a chapel each for the independents and baptists, and a small charity school; there is also a very respectable boarding academy for young gentlemen, conducted by Messrs. Grace & Bond. The market-day is Thursday; the fairs are, Feb. 18th, March 20th, April 20th, Holy Thursday, August 21st, September 22nd, November 26th, and December 9th, all for cattle; there are, besides, statute meetings for hiring servants, held on the first Thursday before, and the first and second Thursdays after October 11th. The parish of Winslow contained, according to the parliamentary returns of 1821, 1,222 inhabitants.

WYCOMBE, HIGH, AND WEST & NEIGHBOURHOODS.

HIGH WYCOMBE, Cheping or Chipping Wycombe, is, as its ancient Saxon name implies, a market town; it is in the hundred of Desborough; 29 miles from London, 34 from Buckingham, 25 from Oxford, 17 from Aylesbury, and 5 from Beaconsfield. The town is pleasantly situated in a valley, on the banks of the Wycombe stream; and is considered the handsomest one in the county. From the many antiquities found
