

(From a Correspondent.)

work has just appeared, entitled "A History of the Jesuits, to which is prefixed a Reply to Mr. Dallas's De-... of that Order," the object of which is to establish the danger of the revival of the Jesuits to the world at large, and to the United Kingdom in particular.

LAW REPORT.

(From a Correspondent.)

This case came to be heard on an appeal from the Master of the Rolls. It arose out of the will of the late Sir John Rich, Chester, who died in 1808. By his will, dated 29th of May, 1808, he bequeathed to his four children, his friends and relations, and appointed the Rev. John Sandford, of Liverpool, executor.

The captain, who deposited to no positive contract between a party for goods to be put on board, though he spoke to conversations with the agents, in which they had asked when the ship would be ready to receive the goods.

Elizabeth Batchelor, being again called, swore that all that the last witness said was false; and the officer, as far as his testimony went, confirmed the evidence in every respect.

CHARGE OF MURDER. CORONER'S INQUEST.—Last night at seven o'clock, a jury was summoned before Mr. UNWIN, at the George public house in Old-street, for the purpose of ascertaining how and by what means John Levi came to his death.

The present King of WITTEMBERG, on assuming the sceptre of his deceased father, published a proclamation, which he assures his States, that "the welfare and happiness of the subjects confided to him will be the sole object of his efforts."

This morning, Sir SANDFORD, Mr. CRAWFORD, and Mr. ROBERTS were heard on the part of the defendant. They contended that the very circumstance of Sir John being desirous to appoint Mr. Scott co-executor with Mr. Sandford was sufficient to prove that he intended to exclude his next of kin from the residue of his personal estate.

Mr. SCARLETT applied for a rule to show cause why judgment in this case should not be arrested. It was an action for a debt, but the cause of the plaintiff's damages was owing to the defendant's negligence.

MANHOUS-HOUSE.—The robbery of the NORWICH MAIL.—Two men, one of whom is named Sylvester, the other Ibbotson, were brought to the office upon suspicion of being accessory to a robbery of the Norwich mail.

On Tuesday evening last, about six o'clock, as Mr. H. Kerhaw, of Pope's Head-alley, Cornhill, was returning to his house in Bonner's-field, Bethnal-green, he was attacked by two men with bludgeons about the middle of the field.

MARRIAGE OF THE EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA. MUNICH, Oct. 29. This evening, at half-past six o'clock, the marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Bavaria with his Imperial Majesty Francis I. Emperor of Austria;

When the Court proceeded to the examination of the witnesses, the learned Judge directed that the evidence should be taken in the order in which it was presented, and that the witnesses should be examined in the order in which they were named in the affidavits.

PERSON OF THE NAME GOLDBLUM.—A person of the name of Goldlum having made some unfortunate speculations in the funds, led to ruin, and as the result of his remaining property fell to 100s. to Mr. Levi, to be divided among his creditors.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, Tuesday, Nov. 12. Mr. Sergeant OSWALD moved for an order directed to the defendant, who holds the office of deputy sealer of this court, calling upon him to produce the original copy of the writ of certiorari, which was issued to arrest a person for debt on meagre process.

BURGLARY.—On Friday night last some thieves entered the stable of Dr. Collier, of Abingdon-square, Cambridge-st. by means of false keys, and stole a large box-coat and several articles of wearing apparel.

After the ceremony his Majesty's Adjutant-General, Lieutenant-General Count Wurtemberg, set out for Vienna, to direct the wedding-ring to his Majesty the Emperor.

COURT OF KING'S BENCH, Tuesday, Nov. 12. The plaintiff, who was FRANK CRISPIN; and the defendant, William Elliot, had this morning, brought an action against the defendant at the last Lancaster Assizes, before Mr. Justice Bayley, as an underwriter, upon a valued policy on freight.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, Tuesday, Nov. 12. Mr. Sergeant OSWALD moved for an order directed to the defendant, who holds the office of deputy sealer of this court, calling upon him to produce the original copy of the writ of certiorari, which was issued to arrest a person for debt on meagre process.

On Saturday, the 9th inst. at Cambridge-works, Surrey; Charles Wrench, Esq. of Brenchley-house, Kent, to Miss Henrietta Gouldard Sturt, daughter of the late Major-General Sturt, Esq. of Brenchley, was solemnized at Achnagee in Ireland.

On the 13th of June last, at Bombay, the wife of Lieut-Colonel Aitchison, Adjutant-General, of a son.

Immediately after the ceremony his Majesty's Adjutant-General, Lieutenant-General Count Wurtemberg, set out for Vienna, to direct the wedding-ring to his Majesty the Emperor.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, Tuesday, Nov. 12. Mr. Sergeant OSWALD moved for an order directed to the defendant, who holds the office of deputy sealer of this court, calling upon him to produce the original copy of the writ of certiorari, which was issued to arrest a person for debt on meagre process.

On Saturday, the 9th inst. at Cambridge-works, Surrey; Charles Wrench, Esq. of Brenchley-house, Kent, to Miss Henrietta Gouldard Sturt, daughter of the late Major-General Sturt, Esq. of Brenchley, was solemnized at Achnagee in Ireland.

On Saturday, the 9th inst. at Cambridge-works, Surrey; Charles Wrench, Esq. of Brenchley-house, Kent, to Miss Henrietta Gouldard Sturt, daughter of the late Major-General Sturt, Esq. of Brenchley, was solemnized at Achnagee in Ireland.

On the 13th of June last, at Bombay, the wife of Lieut-Colonel Aitchison, Adjutant-General, of a son.